BY-LAW FOUR

Board of Directors

Article One. The Society shall be governed by a board of directors known as The Link Publication Society Board of Directors, hereinafter referred to as the Board, which shall be constituted as follows:

- i) The board shall be comprised of nine (9) members as follows
 - ii) Two (2) members of the Staff, none of whom shall hold an editorial position within The Link, elected at a regular staff meeting that takes place before the A.G.M. Open positions may be filled during the year through a by-election.
 - iii) One (1) member at large of the Society, none of whom shall hold an executive position within another university group, elected at the A.G.M. of the Society.
 - iv) Two (2) members of the community who have been members of the Staff within the last three (3) years, elected at the A.G.M. by the Society.
 - v) Two (2) non-voting members who are Link alumni, recommended by the Editor-in-Chief and ratified by the voting members of the Board, who shall serve as ex-officio directors.
 - vi) The Business Manager of The Link, who shall be a non-voting member of the Board and who shall also serve as ex-officio director.
 - vii) The Editor-in-Chief of The Link, who shall be a non-voting member of the Board.
 - viii) Interested candidates must submit a letter of intent to the secretary of the Board seven (7) days prior to the elections. The secretary of the Board will advertise and publish the names of the interested candidates prior to the elections.
 - ix) Following the conclusion of every meeting of the Board, at the request of the Editor-in-Chief, the President or Vice-President of the Board communicates with Masthead to discuss the occurrences of the meeting and to field any questions or concerns that Masthead may have, while also adhering to the restrictions set out by the non-disclosure agreement.

Article Two. Term:

- i) The term of office for all voting members of the Board will commence with their election and terminate at the subsequent A.G.M. of the Society.

ii) Replacement of the Board members will require by-elections to be held by the relevant bodies, pertaining to the constituency of the Board member(s) as outlined above.

Article Three. The purpose of the Board shall be to ensure the proper fiscal management of the budget of the Society and to ensure that the by-laws of the Society are honoured. The Board shall not have control over the editorial content of The Link, except where the content violates an article of the Society by-laws.

Article Four. The Board shall have the power to:

i) Impeach or take any other disciplinary measures against any member of the Staff, provided that such an action be ratified by a majority vote of the Staff at a Staff meeting. Such meetings shall have a fifty (50) per cent quorum and be advertised at least seven (7) days in advance. In the event of a tie, the measure is not ratified.

ii) Elect a chairperson from among themselves, at the first Board meeting after the A.G.M. The term of office of the chairperson ends after the following A.G.M.

iii) Elect from among themselves a secretary to keep the minutes of the meetings.

iv) Upon resignation, removal or termination of the term of office of the chairperson, appoint an acting chairperson from among the members of the Board in office until such time as a new chairperson is duly elected.

v) Approve and amend the budget of the Society for the publishing year.

vi) Receive the financial statement of the Business Manager and oversee the preparation of the audit.

vii) Submit an annual report to the A.G.M. of the Society, within the terms of the reference outlined above.

viii) Notwithstanding By-law Fifteen, Article two, the Board shall have the sole authority to propose the amount of any fee levies.

ix) Approve, or appoint committees to approve, the hiring of all permanent paid employees.

Article Five. Meetings of the Board:

i) Meetings shall fall into two categories:
a) regular meetings of the Board;
b) special meetings of the Board.

ii) There shall be at least three (3) regular meetings of the Board during each academic year. Board members shall be notified at least one week in advance of the meeting.

iii) Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time by the chairperson of the Board or by three (3) Board members. Twenty-four (24) hours of advance notice must be given to the Board members.

iv) Quorum for any meeting of the Board shall be a simple majority of voting members.

v) The latest version of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the conduct of all Board meetings, except when these rules contravene these by-laws.

BY-LAW FIVE

Society Staff

Article One. Staff membership shall be open to all members of the Society.

Article Two. Anyone who has contributed three (3) hours of production work to an online issue or who has had an article, video, photo or graphic published in an online issue, shall be deemed to have made one contribution to that online issue. Individuals cannot be deemed to have made more than one contribution to any given issue published online.

i. Anyone who has contributed three (3) hours of production work to a print issue or who has had an article, photo or graphic published in a print issue, shall be deemed to have made one contribution to that print issue. Individuals cannot be deemed to have made more than one contribution to any given print issue.

Individuals cannot be credited with more than one contribution in one week. This is true even when an individual contributes to an online issue and a print issue the same week.

Article Three. A member of the Society attains Staff membership status for an academic term by making a recognized contribution to four (4) different issues of The Link during that term.

Article Four. All members of the Staff at the end of the previous publishing term shall be said to have the same status for the first six (6) publishing weeks starting in September for the fall term or January for the winter term. To maintain staff status, four (4) new contributions must be made within this time.

An individual may maintain their staff status as long as they are a member of the society.

Article Five. All contributors to each issue shall have their names published as contributors in that issue of The Link. Corrections to the contributors list shall be published the following issue.

Article Six.

i) The Staff shall meet at least eighteen (18) times per year. Minutes must be taken and attendance sheet with names of all current staff, which will be prepared in advance by the Managing Editor, will be kept in the Business Manager's office for archival purposes. The attendance sheet must be signed by all staff in attendance.

ii) Meetings shall be conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order. The chair of each meeting shall be elected by the staff who are present and the chair shall, in turn, appoint a secretary other than themselves.

BY-LAW SIX
Editorial Positions of The Link

Article One. The editorial positions of The Link shall be elected by the staff and shall not be subjected to ratification by any outside body. To be a member of staff for voting purposes, an individual must attain staff status by 11:59:59 PM the day prior to the elections.

Article Two.

- i) The regular election of editorial positions for the following publishing year shall be held no less than three (3) weeks before the last issue of the volume.
- ii) Elected editors shall hold their positions unless they resign or are impeached until the end of the current volume. Editors wishing to continue in their positions must be re-elected during the regular election.
- iii) By-elections may be called by the Editor-in-Chief at any time during the publishing year if a position is vacant and they deem that there is a need to fill the position. Such elections shall accept candidates for all vacant editorial positions and be subject to the same rules and procedures as regular elections. However, by-elections shall have a quorum requirement of 1/3 of staff.

Article Three. Notice of elections shall be advertised and published by The Link twenty-one (21) calendar days prior to the date of elections. The following information shall appear in the Notice:

- a) Date, time and place of the elections;
- b) A list of eligible voters; individuals who are staff members pursuant to by-law 5, article 2; and those who can attain staff status at the time of the election;
- c) list of positions to be filled and procedure to be followed by candidates wishing to run for elections;
- d) date and time of deadline to submit a position paper
- e) Every week, the list of eligible voters will be updated and published. A final notice of the elections with the name of candidates and eligible voters will be advertised and published one (1) day before the election.

The publication and posting requirements set out in this article shall be the responsibility of the Editor-in-Chief.

Article Four. Only members of staff shall be eligible to seek election for editorial positions of The Link. Only staff members can submit a position paper which is required to run in the election.

- i) Staff members must submit a position paper not exceeding one single page to be posted in The Link's office at least seven (7) calendar days prior to elections by four (4) o'clock p.m., unless otherwise mentioned in the notice of election. This position paper will explain the candidate's reasons for running, goals and any relevant experience for the position.

ii) Staff members must also submit a portfolio of work containing at least three (3) contributions to The Link related to the position, posted by the same date. For those applying for the positions of photo, graphic, video editor, they must -also-submit at least two examples of work within the medium of the position. The individual applying for Creative Director must submit at least two sample layouts and one other visual form.

iii) Candidates for Editor-in-Chief must submit at least eight (8) samples of work from at least three (3) different sections of The Link.

Article Five. Each candidate for editorial positions shall require the nomination of another member of the staff. A candidate is considered nominated when another staff member signs their position paper. Candidates must be nominated prior to posting.

For the purposes of By-Law Six articles 4 and 5, an individual must be a staff member, as defined by By-Law 5 article 2, seven (7) calendar days before the election.

Article Six. All candidates shall be subject to staff screening:

i) The questions for each screening shall be drawn up at a staff meeting immediately following the nomination posting and before the election.

A committee of staff members will draft questions for the candidates.

Candidates cannot contribute to the drafting of the questions for the position for which they are running and they should leave the meeting while the questions are being discussed.

ii) The same questions shall be asked to all candidates running for the same positions.

iii) During the screening of a candidate, all other candidates for that same position shall leave the room where the elections are being held.

Article Seven. The voting procedure shall be supervised by the president of The Link's board of directors, or their delegate who will act as Chief Electoral Officer. The Chief Electoral Officer shall not be a staff member. It is the Chief Electoral Officer's responsibility to supervise the elections and explain the election process immediately before voting, including the reading of By-law Six Article Eight. All votes under By-law 6 shall be conducted by secret ballot.

Article Eight.

i) In the event that there are only two candidates running for a position, the winning candidate must receive a simple majority of votes. Voters shall have the option either to vote for at most one candidate or an option for "none of the above." If there is a simple majority of votes for "none of the above," no candidates will be elected. Spoiled ballots shall not be counted and shall be discarded secretly.

ii) If there are three (3) or more candidates for a position and none receives a majority of the vote, balloting shall continue, with the candidate with the least number of votes being dropped from the ballot after each round until only two (2) candidates remain. Spoiled ballots shall not be counted and shall be discarded secretly.

iii) Whenever there is a tie, each candidate must give a one-minute speech followed by a five-minute question and answer period with staff members. During the question and answer period, candidates are subject to the same rules outlined in By-law six Article 6.3. Voters shall have the option either to vote for at most one candidate or an option for "none of the above." If there is a majority of votes for "none of the above," no candidates will be elected and the position will be filled at the next by-election.

iv) In the event of another tie, the current masthead (if in by-election) or new masthead (if in general election) will enter into seclusion to vote on who will fill the position. The deciding masthead must elect a candidate by reaching a simple majority within 60 minutes immediately following the second tied balloting between the two (2) candidates.

v) If the deciding masthead cannot reach a decision within the 60 minutes, the position remains open until a following election.

Article Nine. Editorial positions can be filled with at most one person. Editors may hold at most one editorial position at a time.

Article Ten. Quorum for elections shall be fifty (50) per cent of Staff members.

Article Eleven. Advance ballot shall be accepted only upon presentation to the Chief Electoral Officer of a signed and sealed envelope containing the ballots before the election is called to order. Advance ballots will only be accepted for the first round of elections. In the event of a tie breaker, advanced ballots will not be counted. Proxy voting will be not accepted.

Article Twelve. Members of the Editorial Board must be members of the Staff throughout their term of office.

Article Thirteen. The Editorial Board may, by majority vote, appoint a member of the Staff to a vacant editorial position on an interim basis for up to three weeks, after which an election must be held. This person shall have all the privileges and responsibilities of a member of the Editorial Board.

Article Fourteen. Resignations of Editorial Board members must be submitted in writing at least two (2) weeks in advance to the chair of the Board of Directors.

BY-LAW SEVEN

Publication Requirements

Article One. The Link shall decide its own publishing dates and copy deadlines.

Article Two. The Society shall publish at least twenty-five (25) online issues of The Link during each publishing year starting June 1 and ending May 31. Two (2) additional online issues shall be published: one will be completed by the beginning of June; a second shall be completed by the last week of August.

i) An online issue is defined as seven (7) days of reporting and production within an online publishing week.

The Link shall decide the number and the publishing dates for print issues.

Article Three. The Society may publish any other publications that it deems desirable and necessary.
